

JEIMUN2026 Worksheet

Worksheet Overview

The worksheet contains questions aimed not only at understanding the overall picture but also at forming each country's stance. Moreover, the worksheet includes questions that can serve as hints for answering PPP questions, so we recommend considering them beforehand.

Submission of the Worksheet is optional. Please create your version by copying this Google Document and submit the link URL via Google Form.

When submitting, set “Anyone with the link” to “Editor”.

In addition, name the document “(Delegate ID)_(Country Name)”

e.g.) 100_Japan

Worksheet Submission Form:

Submission deadline: 12/29 23:59:59

We recommend submitting your worksheet before the conference, but the submission is optional. If you submit your worksheet before the deadline, JEIMUN2026 staff will read your worksheet. We will still open the form, so you can submit after the worksheet submission deadline. In addition, if you do not respond to all the questions, do not hesitate to submit your worksheet.

Basic Information

- While some sections require information not directly related to the agenda (e.g., population), comprehensively understanding your assigned country's situation from various perspectives aids in formulating sound policies prioritizing national interests. We strongly encourage thorough research.
- While following the order should facilitate smooth preparation, please modify it as needed for the ambassadors' convenience.
- This file itself is set to be non-editable. Therefore, please create a copy of this file and share it between pairs for editing.
(App version: Tap the ... icon, select Share & export, then Send a copy)
- Research is recommended to be conducted in English or the language of your assigned country. Please conduct your research using translation services if necessary.
- Creating your own necessary questions and answering them is highly effective for meeting preparation. You can add your original question in this worksheet. We strongly recommend this process.

Part 0 Basic comprehension on UN / MUN

- What is “policy” in the real world?
- What is the United Nations?
- How does the UN work in the real world?
